ABSTRACT

The view of the community in Islamic jurisprudence is one of the important foundations for the interpretation and enforcement of verdicts. To the extent that, without considering it, extraction and explanation of many of the sentences will not be possible. Among contemporary scholars, "Imam Khomeini (RA)" is one of the greatest and most famous scholars of Islam in the present era; and his important work, titled "Tahrir al-Wasilla", is the most important source of research and awareness of his views. In this article, while trying to refer to the place of the tradition in the teachings of Islam, the use and significance of the "tradition" in the book "Tahrir al-Wasilla" is to be considered.

Keyword:

Tradition, Imam Khomeini, Tahrir al-Wasilla, Islamic rulings.
