Islamic worldview and its influence on managers thought and practice

Sajjad shahbaz ghahfarrokhí
Lecturer, Faculty of Arts and Humanities, shahrekod university, shahrekord, iran

Abstract
Insight and attitudes that an school present about the world, origin and imagining it, justify phenomena and the relations between them, explaining the position of human in the world and justify his adaptation with being, affect on thoughts and function of humans directly. This article, with descriptive and analysis of content method, first drawing Islamic world view, then study amount and type of impact this worldview on managers thought, behavior and operation.

Keywords: Islamic worldview, manager, thought, operation.